

Today

Did you stop this morning to pray
To ask your Lord for strength today
Or did you forget and go on your way?

Did you thank your Lord for sleep so sweet
To look after you guide your feet
Trying to witness to those you meet?

Do you tell that He died for all
Hearing the gentle knocking at your door
Stopping to listen to His call?

Tell the people that you meet
Whether at school, work or street
That Jesus came to save and seek.

So keep your hearth and soul in tune
Tell that He is coming and coming soon
And add there's plenty of room.

Don't be busy to stop and pray
Ask your Lord to lead the way
Take this time and do it today.

By K Stefanescu